WOMAN SOCIETY

ENTERTAINS FOR MRS. R. R. SMITH

Mrs. Arthur Hodge entertained last Tuesday at a surprise luncheon in honor of the birthday of Mrs. R. R. Smith.

The luncheon was served in the beautiful pergola at the Hodge home on Redondo boulevard, Lomita. The table was beautifully decorated in yellow and white.

Mrs. Smith received beautiful gifts from the guests, who enjoyed an afternoon at bridge.

Present were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Larimer, Mrs. Joe Stone, Mrs. Charles Schmitt, Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. B. H. Dye, Mrs. Peables, Mrs. Joseph Haggard, Mrs. W. C. Dolley, Mrs. Henry Barnett, Mrs. George Greaves, Mrs. Harry McManus, Mrs. A. W. Meiner, Mrs. W. C. Von Hazen, Mrs. Frank Clark, Miss Esther Hodge and the hostess.

TRIPLE CITY LODGE DANCE SEPT. 24

With a good floor and a fine orchestra, and refreshments all through the evening, prospects are bright for a glorious evening, Saturday, Sept. 24, when Triple City Lodge puts on its novelty dance. The affair will be held in Old Fellows Temple on Redondo-Wilmington boulevard, and Howard

Owens and his committee promises everyone a jolly evening, at 37 1/2 cents per each of a couple (if you go that way), or 25 cents for ladies and 50 cents for men.

MRS. DEWEY QUIGLEY HOUSEWARMING HOSTESS

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Quigley entertained at a housewarming recently. The affair was a surprise celebration of the birthday of Miss Olive Patton and also of Mrs. Quigley's birthday.

The guests enjoyed five hundred and other games. Honors at five hundred went to Miss Patton.

A buffet supper was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McCollum, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Farmer and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodward and son; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Christopher and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Christopher.

Mr. and Mrs. Quigley, who recently returned to Torrance from Long Beach are making their home in the newly remodelled house on the Patton lease on Camino Real.

AID SOCIETY HAS DELIGHTFUL DAY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church enjoyed a delightful day at the home of Mrs. A. D. Rhodes, 1503 Amapola on Tuesday, September 13. Sewing and needlework occupied the morning hours and at noon a delicious luncheon was served.

At 2 p. m. the business session was called to order. Mrs. Wells led devotional service. After the usual preliminaries were disposed of an election of officers was held, with Mrs. Edward Clarkson as chairman of the nominating committee.

Preceding the voting Mrs. Clarkson gave a short inspiring talk on "Woman's Duty to God and the Church." The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. O. Hall, president; Mrs. J. Edwards, first vice president; Mrs. L. Fordice, second vice president; Mrs. F. Kelley, third vice president; Mrs. Geo. LaPlante, fourth vice president; Mrs. A. D. Rhodes, recording secretary; Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, treasurer; Mrs. G. Mowry, financial secretary; Mrs. Wells, corresponding secretary.

An all day work meeting will be held in the church parlors, Tuesday, Sept. 27. A fifteen cent luncheon will be served at noon. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tansey of Carson street spent part of last week with Mr. Tansey's mother and sister, Mrs. Hattie Tansey and Mrs. M. J. Collidge of San Francisco.

NO REPUTATION

WHEN GOVERNOR Young was VISITING the STATE penitentiary up at SAN QUENTIN a few weeks ago, WORD was BROUGHT to him that a COLORED woman INMATE of the INSTITUTION wanted to INTERVIEW him in regard to a PARDON. The GOVERNOR very OBLIGINGLY listened to the DUSKY BELLE but could not SEEM to FIND out why she was so ANXIOUS to be RELEASED as she had no COMPLAINT to make about the WAY she was TREATED. Finally he ASKED her WHY she was so DISSATISFIED and she replied, "It's DIS way GUYNER. I've got just one REJECTION to my PLACE and dat's de REPUTATION it's GOT out ovah de STATE."

P. S.: It's different with the reputation of Nyal Drugs, good wherever you go.

"GEORGE."

Little Chats With Vons Customers

The reason I trade at Vons:—I was first attracted to Vons by the optimism of the manager, who "makes even a rainy day shine."

Then, the high grade of their groceries, together with the prevailing low prices was also a big inducement.

I have always found Vons employees ever ready to volunteer useful suggestions regarding their stock, and these suggestions are highly valued by the thrifty housewife.
